English 101 Mid Term Examination (Guidelines)

There are 80 questions on the examination. The examination is 90 minutes.

Section 1: Reading comprehension (20 questions 2 points per question)

Part A: Seen Reading from Reading Portfolio 1: 10 multiple-choice questions

Part B: Unseen Reading: 10 multiple-choice questions

Section 2: Vocabulary understanding and usage (AWL1-3)

Part A: Two- three paragraph cloze test (gap-fill) 12 multiple-choice questions

Read the paragraph and choose which word best fits into the gap in the text.

Part B: Vocabulary definitions 8 multiple-choice questions

Read the definition and choose the word that matches the definition.

(Definitions are taken from the Academic Word Lists: 1-3)

Part C: Vocabulary in context 10 multiple-choice questions

Read the sentence and choose the word that best fits into the gap in the sentence.

Section 3: Editing and Grammar

Part A: Identify the mistakes in the essay. 12 multiple-choice questions (A B C D and E)

The essay will include mistakes related to: sentence structure, grammar, punctuation, signal/transition words and word forms (e.g., a noun is used when it should be an adjective).

Part B: Grammar in context 18 multiple-choice questions

Read the sentence and choose which answer best fits into the gap in the sentence.

Vocabulary: You will be tested on Academic Word Lists 1 – 3

Grammar: In the PYP, you were taught a lot of quite complicated grammatical structures. In English 101, we only test you on the types of grammatical mistakes you make in your essays. The list below is what you will be tested on. Some of the structures appear on the pacing schedule AFTER the midterm. It does not matter. You will still be tested on them. You should know these structures. English 101 is not a grammar course. The grammar lessons are only to make you aware of the mistakes you make in your writing, so make sure you revise the complete list.

You will be tested on:

- Verb tenses (including passive and active)
- Sentence fragments
- Run-ons
- Possessives
- Pronoun reference
- Transition/signal words
- Gerunds
- Relative clauses
- Modal verbs
- Conditionals
- Punctuation
- Passives

The PowerPoint presentations are available in your section teacher's course. At the end of the presentations, you will find links to additional material. Below, there are some links to other sites that may be useful.

G#	Grammar Type	Links
G1 & G2	Sentence fragments; Run-ons; & Punctuation	1. Walden U. Sentence Structure Types 2. Youtube Grammar Monster: a. Simple b. Compound c. Complex 3. Walden U. Fragments & Run-ons Video\ 4. Run-on & Fragments 5. Punctuation Exercises
G3	Subject/Verb Agreement	1. Review 2. Practice Quiz
G4	Verb Tenses	1. Grammarly Verb Tenses Intro 2. Perfect English Verb Tenses Exercises 3. English Page Verb Tenses Exercises
G5	Relative Clauses	1. BBC Intro to R.C. 2. R.C. Practice Test 3. Walden University Academic Guide Writing Center R.C.

		4. Perfect English R.C. Review 5. Perfect English R.C. Exercises 1 6. Perfect English R.C. Exercises 2
G6	Modals	• Perfect English Practice
G7	Conditionals	1. English Club Practice 2. UE Mixed Conditional Practice
G8	Parallel Structure	• Walden U. Parallel Structure
	Possessives	• Perfect English Practice Exercises
	Pronoun reference	• Tutorial & Practice Exercises
	Transitional/ Signal words (cohesive devices)	1. despite, however, although 2. Many exercises for conjunctions
	Gerunds	• Gerund & Infinitive Exercises